Mission Statement :

By our Baptism, we are committed to celebrate the presence of Christ in Word and Sacrament and are continually called to build our lives in the image of Christ. Through liturgy and ministry, we strive to bring ourselves closer to God and to each other, by building a strong community of believers and a joyous family of God.

34th Week in Ordinary Time

On the Thirty-Fourth Sunday of Ordinary Time, we celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King. In the first reading from the Book of Daniel, we read of a vision he has of 'one like a Son of man coming, on the clouds of heaven'. In John's Gospel Jesus tells Pilate, 'You say I am a king. For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice'.

Tuesday is the Memorial of Saint Cecilia, martyr.

The first reading this last week of the liturgical year is from the Book of Daniel. These apocalyptic and mystical readings were written to give encouragement to the Jewish people in the face of persecution.

The stories in the Gospel of Luke this week offer a look at the meaning of generosity as the poor widow offers her two small coins. Jesus cautions against those who will come in his name promising salvation: 'Do not follow them!' The cost of following his teaching is made clear, 'You will be hated by all because of my name, but not a hair on your head will be destroyed'. In a dramatic look at the end time, echoing the Daniel readings, Jesus says, 'And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory'. Jesus continues the 'end time' message saying, 'know that the Kingdom of God is near. Amen, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place'. He cautions, 'Beware that your hearts do not become drowsy from carousing and drunkenness and the anxieties of daily life, and that day catch you by surprise like a trap'.

Sunday is the beginning of a new liturgical year with the First Sunday of Advent. The first reading from the Book of Jeremiah offers a comforting promise of safety to beleaguered Israel: 'those days Judah shall be safe and Jerusalem shall dwell secure'. Luke's Gospel offers us a repeat of several of the daily gospels, advising us to be alert and vigilant, watching for signs. 'And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory'.

Daily Prayer This Week

The old and the new come together this week as we bring this liturgical year to a close and look ahead to Advent, which begins Sunday. We reflect that Jesus is our Savior and King. This means we are called to help build up the kingdom by loving Jesus in our poorest brothers and sisters. We will encounter readings about the generosity of a poor widow and the warning of the approaching end of time. This is meant to help us begin our preparations for Advent. The actual end of the world may not be at hand, but the Kingdom of God is always at hand for us. It takes focus and paying attention to notice the signs, the ways the Lord makes himself available to us in the midst of our busy days.

We prepare for Advent this week when we can begin a small, but honest prayer, 'Come, Lord, Jesus. Come into this place and into the conflict in my life. Let me be attentive and open to see the places where I am restless, distracted and too busy. Come into my real situation - not the way I present myself to others. Come to me - the real me that needs you'. For all of us, this is a week to be grateful and to experience the beginning of Advent on Sunday. As we grow in our practice of connecting with our Lord and friend in brief moments throughout each day, we can develop the habit of giving thanks each night for what we have received.
