Mass Intentions

Offering Masses is a long standing tradition in the Catholic Church.

An Individual may ask a priest to offer a Mass for several reasons.

For example, in Thanksgiving, for the intentions of another person (such as on a Birthday or an Anniversary), for someone who is sick or for the repose of the soul of someone who has died.

The Fifth Week of Lent

In the Fifth Sunday of Lent, John's gospel brings us the story of the woman accused of adultery. Religious leaders bring a woman to Jesus challenging him: 'Now in the law, Moses commanded us to stone such women'. Jesus responded only, 'Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her'. The crowd quietly dispersed. Jesus seeing there is no one left to accuse the woman says gently, 'Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin any more'.

The first readings this week prepare for the gospels. We begin with the long, but well worth reading, story of Susanna, which ends in 'blessing God who saves those who hope in him'. The bronze serpent on a pole reminds us of Jesus' saving cross. Three young men refuse to commit idolatry and show us how God protects 'the servants who trusted in him'. God entered a covenant with Abraham. In the midst of his persecution, Jeremiah praises God, 'For he has rescued the life of the poor from the power of the wicked!' God promises to unite the people in an everlasting covenant.

Our gospels are again from John, the Fourth Gospel. Jesus continues to challenge the Pharisees, who plot his arrest. Jesus challenges those who do not believe in him: 'I know where I came from and where I am going'. Reminding us of the bronze serpent and his death, Jesus says, 'When you lift up the Son of Man, then you will realize that I am'. To the children of Abraham and to us Jesus declares, 'If you remain in my word, you will truly be my disciples and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free'. 'Whoever keeps my word will never see death. ... Amen, amen, I say to you, before Abraham came to be, I am'. They heard what they thought was blasphemy and tried to stone him. Jesus simply told the truth, because, 'the Father is in me and I am in the Father'. After the raising of Lazarus, the plans were set to destroy Jesus. The high priest says the prophetic words, 'it is better for you that one man should die instead of the people, so that the whole nation may not perish'.

On Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion we make our way into Holy Week. We read the gospel about Jesus' entry into Jerusalem, Paul's invitation to us to imitate Jesus who emptied himself, and the whole Passion, this year from Luke's Gospel.

Daily Prayer This Week

This is the last full week of Lent. We can feel the conflict and struggle developing in the readings. As we read about the drama that surrounded Jesus' last days on earth and reflect upon its meaning, we experience how the drama that is going in our own hearts is more intense the closer we get to the end of Lent. The Spirit of the Lord is really trying to help us be more open and more free, to receive the graces our Lord wants to offer us.

There is another spirit that is fighting just as hard to distract us, discourage us, and prevent us from being open and attentive to God's gifts. The closer we get to the mystery of our Lord's passion, death and resurrection for us, the more we can experience struggle. If I experience myself somewhat 'at war' with myself, then these are very important days to keep deliberately asking our Lord to help me.

It is also a great time to begin to prepare to renew our baptismal promises at Easter. We can reject the unloving choices we've made, all that is unjust, dishonest, disrespectful and violent. We want to refuse to be mastered by empty promises. Declaring our desire for freedom is a great preparation to receive this great gift.
