Mass Intentions

Offering Masses is a long standing tradition in the Catholic Church.

An Individual may ask a priest to offer a
Mass for several reasons.

For example, in Thanksgiving, for the intentions of another person (such as on a Birthday or an Anniversary), for someone who is sick or for the repose of the soul of someone who has died.

Jesus can raise everyone from the tomb of dead, tired soul - John 11:1-45
By Pope Francis

Come out from the dark cave of pride, sin and death and into the light of a new life with Christ, Pope Francis said.

'Take away the stone of shame' that is keeping you trapped inside a life that is dead or painful and be raised up again by Christ.

When Jesus went to Lazarus' tomb, he asked that the stone sealing the entrance be taken away. He then 'cried out in a loud voice, 'Lazarus come out!' And the dead man came out', the Gospel says.

Jesus is saying the same thing to people today, the pope said, 'because we're all marked by death' and sin. 'All of us have some areas, some parts of our hearts that are not alive, that are a little dead and other people have a lot of their heart that's dead - a real spiritual necrosis!'

The parts of a person's heart that have died have become 'tombs of sin', he said, and some people become trapped inside, either because they are afraid or embarrassed to come out or they have become 'attached' to their sin and corrupted.

The pope asked people to think about what part of their hearts have died, that have become a dark tomb, and then listen to Jesus calling, like he called Lazarus: 'Come out!'

'Christ doesn't give up in front of the tombs we have built by our choosing evil and death, by our mistakes, our sins', the pope said. Jesus 'calls us incessantly to get out of the darkness of the prison we've locked ourselves into by making do with a false, egotistical, mediocre life'.

'Come out!' is a beautiful invitation to true freedom', he said.

'Our resurrection begins here, when we decide to obey Jesus' command, to come out into the light, to life', he said.

Just as Jesus asked that the burial cloths that were wrapped around Lazarus' hands, feet and face be untied, so Christians today need to uncover their true selves.

'Many times we are masked by sin; the masks must fall and we will rediscover the courage of our original face', created in the image of God.

There is no limit to how much love and mercy God offers to everyone, he said.

We all need it! All of us. We are all sinners, but we must be careful not to become corrupt! Sinners we may be, but he forgives us. Let us hear that voice of Jesus who, by the power of God, says to us, 'Come out! Leave that tomb you have within you. Come out. I give you life, I give you happiness, I bless you, I want you for myself'.

May the Lord give us all the grace to rise from our sins, to come out of our tombs; with the voice of Jesus, calling us to go out, to go to him.
