Development and Peace

On reserves created by the Brazilian state, the seringueiros tap rubber trees, and gather nuts and fruits for subsistence. Their lands are now covered by powerful loggers, hunters, ranchers and soybean farmers. They face increasing threats, intimidation, and persecution. Despite these hardships, the seringueiros remain to tend their beloved forest. Development and Peace's partner, the Pastoral Land Commission (CPT) supports the seringueiros by documenting violations of their rights and by helping them legally contest the seizure of their lands. 'Those who want to help us should immediately come to see what is happening here so that we may keep The forest standing'. - Ederson Chaves Dias, seringueiro, Angelim Reserve, Machadinho d'Oeste

Jesus Cures the Man Born Blind John 9:1-41

The man born blind washed the mud from his eyes in the pool called Siloam, which means 'the one who is sent'.

How is Jesus a pool to wash the mud from your eyes so that you might see?

As soon as the man could see, his life became very difficult. People wondered whether he was the same man. Has the restoration of your sight so changed you that others are surprised at the transformation?

So much fear seems to surround the restoration of the man's sight.

What fears do I now have about seeing clearly who Jesus is and what choices I must make to be with him?

The grace will come when I acknowledge that my eyes have been opened. Others may not want to believe I can see, but I know I can only keep repeating it, to myself and to them. I may experience rejection by some for claiming this new vision, but in the Light, I can see clearly the one who has healed me, and I give him thanks and praise.
