26th Week in Ordinary Time

On the Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time Jesus tells his disciples not to worry about someone driving out evil in his name. He warns about giving scandal, especially to children and calls for a radical avoidance of evil. We are to separate ourselves from it and choose to turn away from sin and its sources as radically as if to cut off our hand or pluck out our eye. It's about life itself.

The week is filled with special days, including Tuesday's, Feast of Saints Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael, archangels; Wednesday's Memorial of Saint Jerome, Priest and Doctor of the Church, and Thursdays remembrance of the Little Flower, Saint Thérèse of the Child Jesus, Virgin and Doctor of the Church. Friday is the Memorial of the Holy Guardian Angels.

The first readings continue with the prophet Zechariah of the period of recovery after the exile. 'They shall be my people, and I will be their God, with faithfulness and justice'. The Book of Nehemiah, like Ezra, chronicles this history. The prophet Baruch gives us a prayer of the people in captivity and God's reply, 'Fear not, my children; call out to God!'

We continue reading Luke's Gospel, as the disciples argue about who is the greatest. Jesus points out a young child and asks them to strive to be the 'least' not the greatest. Jesus stops his disciples from preventing people, not of their group, from healing, because they are with Jesus, too. When Nathanael believes because Jesus could say where he had been, Jesus tells him that as a follower, 'You will see greater things than this'. People come up, offering to follow Jesus, but have excuses for why they can't do it now. Jesus calls them to not 'look back' once they have said, 'yes'. He sends his disciples to other towns: 'The harvest is rich but the workers are few'. Jesus tells us to humble ourselves like a defenseless child. He prays, 'I give you praise, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to the childlike'.

On the Twenty-seventh Sunday of Ordinary Time the readings speak of marriage and partnership. In the Book of Genesis, Adam does not find a suitable partner until the Lord creates woman. Psalm 128 praises the Lord who blesses home and family. In Mark's Gospel the Pharisees test Jesus asking if it is lawful for a husband to divorce his wife. The question is meant to be a trap for Jesus but he repeats the scripture in Genesis. The gospel ends with Jesus urging us to be like children were in that society - unimportant and with no status. 'The kingdom of God belongs to such as these'. Then he embraced and blessed the children.

Daily Prayer This Week

We can be inspired this week by Saint Thérèse of Lisieux, the beloved Little Flower and her 'Little Way' of finding a path to God in the smallest of ways. An extraordinary young woman who lived close to our own times. she is an example of a humble life of simplicity and humility.

This week, we can turn to the Archangels and our own Guardian Angel to support us and help us stay open to listen, courageous in saying yes, and faithful to reforming our desires.

Catholic Young Adults Gathering

We invite Catholic Young Adults (Ages 18-35) to gather in prayer and to meet one another. Join us on Friday, October 1 at 7.30 pm at Christ the King Church (30 Beech Street, Sudbury). We will begin with Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament led by Fr. Daniele Muscolino, Director of Youth & Young Adults for the Diocese of Sault Ste Marie, followed by a time of socializing afterwards.

The Life Chain will be held on Sunday, October 3rd, 2021 between 2.30 pm to 3.30 pm on Paris Street in front of Health Sciences North.
