Mass Intentions

Offering Masses is a long standing tradition in the Catholic Church.

An Individual may ask a priest to offer a Mass for several reasons.

For example, in Thanksgiving, for the intentions of another person (such as on a Birthday or an Anniversary), for someone who is sick or for the repose of the soul of someone who has died.

Thirteenth Week of Ordinary Time

Sunday is the Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time. In Luke's Gospel we hear of Jesus 'resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem' but not being welcomed by all. When Jesus invites: 'Follow me' he is put off with excuses. 'No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God'.

Tuesday is the Memorial of Saint Irenaeus, Bishop and Martyr. Wednesday is the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles, with its own special readings.

The first readings this week are from the Book of the Prophet Amos. Amos was a shepherd who was called to deliver God's word to the northern kingdom, Israel.

Matthew's Gospel takes us through several stories about Jesus' ministry. We begin as Jesus demonstrates that following him requires a radical change in life: 'Follow me, and let the dead bury their dead'. Jesus calms the storm at sea. Then he drives demons out of two men living among the tombs. When a paralyzed man is brought to him, Jesus has compassion on the man and forgives his sins, which causes a controversy. Jesus then heals the man's paralysis. He calls Matthew to leave his customs post and follow him, and the many tax collectors and sinners who come to have dinner with Jesus cause a controversy with the religious leaders. 'Those who are well do not need a physician, but the sick do. Go and learn the meaning of the words, 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice'. I did not come to call the righteous but sinners'. When Jesus' disciples are criticized for not fasting, Jesus talks about the difficulty of combining the old and the new. He is calling for something radically new. Not a patch, but new wine in new wineskins.

Sunday is the Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time. We continue in Luke's Gospel with Jesus sending out the seventy-two 'like lambs among wolves'. Typical of Jesus' teachings, the sending reveals both the grace of being sent and a lesson of what to be thankful for. We are called not to be proud in our status as Christians, but joyous in our knowledge that we have a place in God's Kingdom.

Daily Prayer This Week

One of the blessings of reading passages that describe Jesus' ministry is that they can help us become more and more attracted to him. We can become fascinated by his pastoral care for those on the margins of society or his courage in the face of opposition. The more we watch Jesus, the easier it is for us to fall in love with him. Being drawn to Jesus with growing affection will ultimately lead us to want to be with him and like him.

The key to finding intimacy with our God in the midst of our busy lives is to let God's Word interact with the real events and people who are there. No matter what our responsibilities are today, no matter how unrelated they seem to be to faith or devotion, and no matter how busy we might be, we can all let God's Word into the background, in brief moments of connection, conversation and intimacy. All it takes is desire and focus.

As we practice using the background moments of our days, we will grow in experiencing that this intimacy is possible. And, when we sense it and enjoy it, and see what a difference it makes, let's not forget to give thanks each evening for the gifts we have received.

Grotto Canada Day Celebration: Bishop Thomas Dowd will be presiding a Mass to celebrate Canada Day on Friday, July 1st, 2022 at the Grotto Sudbury. Mass at 7:00 pm preceded by the Rosary at 6.30 pm. Everyone is welcome. Also to come on August 15, 2022 Mass to celebrate the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
